

Grey Mountain Partners Promotes Colin McCarthy to Vice President

BOULDER, CO — Grey Mountain Partners is pleased to announce that Colin McCarthy has been promoted to Vice President. Since joining Grey Mountain, Colin has played a significant role in all stages of transaction execution. The promotion recognizes Colin’s contributions to the firm’s growth and highlights the continued strengthening of its investment team.

Prior to joining the firm, Colin was an Associate at Maranon Capital, a Chicago-based investment firm. At Maranon, Colin focused on performing due diligence and executing senior debt, subordinated debt, and minority equity transactions for middle-market companies. Previously, he was an investment banking analyst at William Blair in Chicago.

Colin holds an MBA in Finance from Columbia University and graduated from Yale University with a BA in History.
