Peter Lee and Judah Milunsky have joined Grey Mountain Partners as Associates. Peter previously worked as an analyst in the Middle Market Restructuring group of Lazard in New York. Prior to joining Grey Mountain Partners, Judah was an Associate at Compass Advisers in New York where he focused on M&A and restructuring advisory services. In the past year, four investment professionals have been hired as the firm continues to execute its investment strategy of creating value by helping its affiliate companies achieve operational excellence.

Since its inception in 2003, Grey Mountain Partners has been focused on acquiring smaller middle market companies in North America. Grey Mountain's initial fund has been a top-decile performer, and the firm is currently investing from Grey Mountain Partners Fund II.
