

Grey Mountain Adds Investment Professionals

Grey Mountain Partners is pleased to announce the addition of Marcello La Rocca, Will Pucillo and Bob Schneider as Associates focused on Transaction Execution and Affiliate Management. Each bring middle market transaction experience in software and services, healthcare technology and IT, industrial services and manufacturing, all of which are key sectors of interest for Grey Mountain Partners and its Executive Sponsorship program.

Marcello La Rocca formerly was an investment banking Analyst in the Healthcare Group at Bank of America Merrill Lynch in New York. He graduated from Miami University with a B.S. in Finance and Accounting.

Will Pucillo previously worked as an investment banking Analyst at Oppenheimer in New York and Barrington Associates in Los Angeles. He graduated from Williams College with a B.A. in Economics and earned an MBA from Michigan University's Ross School of Business.

Bob Schneider was most recently an investment banking Associate with Citadel Securities in New York. Prior to Citadel, he was an Analyst in the Global Leveraged Finance group at Barclays Capital in New York. Bob graduated from Princeton University with a B.A. in Economics.

Since its inception in 2003, Grey Mountain Partners has been focused on acquiring middle market companies in North America and supporting management teams to help them achieve operational excellence and create lasting value. The firm is currently investing from Grey Mountain Partners Fund II, a 2009 vintage fund.
